

SUPPLEMENT 5

Parsing The Future Tense Of Irregular Verbs The Passive Voice Of The Verb

(Intransitive verbs can never be passive and must be regarded as impersonal forms)
Where an alternative form exists the most commonly used is given first

All irregular verbs are given even although Beir - Catch, Cluinn - Hear and Ruig - Reach/Arrive are regular in the future tense and are only given here for reference.

With the exception of a few alternative forms the ending is the same as the regular future tense.

The future tense also conveys the Habitual Present mood.
